Incidents and Comments.

-A Chicago man who read the McFarland murder trial attentively, has put in a plea of temporary insanity to the charge of stealing three pigs. He says he had an uncle that was that way, and had to be confined in a lunatic asyhum or a penitentiary, he don't remember

-A Michigan Life Insurance company has been excused from paying a policy on a man's life because he was killed and robbed while walking home, when the policy only provides for death by "public or private conveyance." -Seems to us walking is a private conveyance, or else it is public.

A St. Louis man applies for a divorce on the ground that his wife weighs thirty pounds more than he does, and invariably gets the best of him in all their encounters. To guard Have just received and opened a large stock of FANCY GROCERIES. WINES and LIQ-UORS for the Holidays. against such occurrences men should always, before marriage, have the object of their affections weighed, and thus become convinced of their own superiority.

How some of these items do live. You can't kill them anyway. Last summer we published an item stating that a second crop of strawberries was growing in Minnesota, and today we got a New Orleans paper with that same item in. Bless you talk about strawberries in Minnesota now! Why the snow is for-Is feet deep on a level.

Private theatricals are popular in Chicago hoteis. A man went into a hotel parlor, and began to disrobe himself in the presence of ladies, and ordered a waiter to bring him a warm bath, as he was about to marry Miss Nilsson, bath, as he was about to marry Miss Nilsson, and wanted to be clean. He was interferred with and bis interferred with and bis interfer. It was interferred catsups, Sardines, Salad Dressing, Olives, French with, and his intended bride has ordered her attorney to look at the law and see if there is any danger of her being married to the man against her will, and if so, what a divorce would probably cost.

A Louisville paper having remarked several times that Elizabeth Cady Stanton habitually swears, she writes to the editor telling him he is a d--d liar. Of course this settles the

Since the bill was introduced into the Georgia Legislature, making dissatisfaction sufficient cause for divorce, it is said that general dissatisfaction exists among the married people there. Even Chicago people are emigrating to Georgia.

The absence of Mr. Johnson, and the fact that the saw was bloody, seem to corroborate the state- which are furnished at publishers' prices, and mailed to any part of the country.

A fine line of Diaries for 1871: a complete asmentof a neighbor that Johnson had gone to the Land of the Leal.

-Several papers have tried to beat the Detroit papers telling lies, but with poor success, A Duluth paper, having stated that a man had a wagon-tongue driven through him, which it took four men to pull out, a Detroit paper says Letter and Note paper and Envelopes at Manua boy there had a wagon-tongue driven through facturers' prices.

Hundreds of boxes Initial Note, French, Rose him, but let it alone for three months, and it finally worked out of his toes. No wonder people look upon newspaper reports with suspicion.

-An inventor of patent skates has been trying to palm off on the public a skate for girls that is a self-fastener, not requiring any straps at all. This would have proved a serious thing cheap for cash, at to the young men who so delight to fasten on skates for the girls, but the girls vow they will not wear them. No, the more straps you can put on a girl's skate. the better the boys and girls will like them.

 A Utica lawyer took part in private theatricals, and it was his part to be struck in the face by another performer. He was knocked down, and instead of getting up and saying "Ha! a blow!" he turned on the other performer and begun to repeat some of Greeley's profamity at him.

"THE CAMPBELLS,"—The Marquis of Lorne has a fine opportunity offered him to prove himself a man fit to mate with the royal house of his country. The cable announcement that the Princess Royal of Prussia. Queen Victoria's daughter, and King William have written a letter to Queen Victoria protesting against the marriage of the Princess Louise to the Marquis of Lorne, as a union beneath her, should be enough, we fancy, to set the tongues of all the Campbells in and out of England wagging with wrath. In the good old days such a message sent concerning a Warwick, or a Northumberland, or a Norfolk would have been met with mounting in hot haste, and a following of a goodly array of men-at-arms, to "know the reason why. Lorne has enough prestige at his back—enough history—enough of the halo of a ply of prime ROLL BUTTER, and a fine stock noble name, to send such an answer to the Hohenzollern King as will make all England hail him as a true Briton, and as a worthy descendant of that "great Argyll who rode before. and made the guns and the cannons roar. The old lowland song declares that "the Campbells are coming:" in the face of the Prussian King's contumelious opinion of the son of the head of the clan, one may well ask, "where! h. where! are the Campbells?

THE EUROPEAN WAR.—The Washington Patriot publishes a bit of secret history, which it youches for as authentic, to the effect that the present European war might not have occurred but for the ambition of an American girl. Don Fernando, father of the King of Portugal. eighteen months ago married Miss E. Hensler, of Boston, who was bearing the title of Countess d'Edea, and to-day occupies a position second only to that of the actual, Queen. Repeated overtures were made by Prim and his colleagues to induce Don Fernando to accept the throne of Spain. The negotiations occupied several months, and were finally broken off. Persons familiar with the facts attribute the failure to different causes from those assigned at the time. The former Miss Hensler could terested freeholders, who, or any three or more not be recognized as Queen of Spain on account of her American birth; and she would just compensation to the owners of land upon the not accept the title of duchess or grandee. As zoon as it became certain there was no probation of the proposed to be taken by such company for its purposes. bility of inducing Don Fernando to go to Madrid unless the Countess d'Edea was recognized as queen, the offer was made to Hohen-

Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may casue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are but sooner by those fall-ing into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened. Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Tritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption Decay and Death.

London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asheep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unlitting them for either business, study, society or mar-These are some of the sad and inclancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility. Symptoms of Consumption, &c. MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all agescan now judge what is the cause of their deciming health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-time sense of shame, or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from educa-tion and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as uherated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveller returns. It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling victims to this terrible disease, through failing into the hands of ignorant or unskifful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their nexions or interest. injurious compounds, and instead of being re-stored to a renewal of Life.
